
Table of Contents

What Is the Be Prepared To Be Engaged Strategy? 1

Why Use the Be Prepared To Be Engaged Strategy? 1

Tools for Be Prepared To Be Engaged 1

Resources Needed To Implement Be Prepared To

For Patients and Families

Material	Uses	Description and format
Patient Prep Card

For Practice Staff

Material	Uses	Description and format
Be Prepared To Be Engaged—A Guide for Staff	Inform practice staff about tools available to help patients and families be prepared and engaged.
Resources Needed To Implement Be Prepared To Be Engaged

Resources needed for Be Prepared To Be Engaged are modest.

Staf ng. No additional staff are needed to implement the Be Prepared strategy.

Costs. Costs are minimal and include printing the materials and having a suf cient supply of pens for patients and families card remains blank, offer to help the patient ll it in. For patients who are resistant, explain that the card can help them focus their time with the clinician and ensure they do not forget anything.

7. During the appointment, the clinician can use the card